

there, to be held in London in June of next year. It would be highly proper that this society should make its arrangements for the trial of the slaves in the United States in this country; and we would propose the appointment of a committee to take the necessary arrangements.

In the course of his work, Mr. Garrison has often been requested, that the most appropriate and valuable documents of this century would be the publication by this society of the "Anti-Slavery Correspondence." This he has done by a little extra exertion on the part of each of our members, and it has cost us many thousands of dollars, and even hundreds and many pages. Reciting the numerous works, there remains to be published—

Anti-Slavery Correspondence, vols. 9 and 10. pp. 1800
Debtors of the Lord. 94
Sacred Scripture. 88
" Life. 24
May Jerusalem and Its Heavenly Inheritance. 155
Brief Epistles. 20
Last Judgment and Condemnation. 112
Faith in the Universe. 100

Total. 2,365

—or a little more than two thousand pages, of over eighteen hundred should be provided for by the Aranda Fund, giving twelve thousand eight hundred pages to be provided for the Anti-Slavery Correspondence.

To stereotype these, printing works, and thus to crown the last work of the Anti-Slavery Managers before them for the coming year, will require an additional sum of $1,000.

The meeting last evening was an informal one, and, as far as respects the order of exercises, the object being, according to the printed invitation, "to communicate information of the Society's operations, and promote a mutual interchange of the interchanges of opinions and sentiments among the friends of the slaves."

S. L. W. D., Esq., the President of the Society. The audience was of very large, but like all gatherings of the adherents of Swedenborg, it was a "hit audience," though few.

The evening was spent in listening to the speakers, who were invited in honor of the occasion by the audience, singing by the organ, and brief remarks by the President, Rev. Samuel Breckinridge, Mr. Hoyt, Mr. Jones and others.

Board of Supervisors.

ANOTHER abortive attempt to GET UP A MEETING.

One section of this lifeless body did not gain last evening, Supervisor VANDER in the chair.

Alfred STEERS moved that the roll be called.

The CHAIRMAN said the Clerk was not present.

Alfred CLANCY moved that the Sergeant-at-Arms be directed to go down stairs and inform the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of 1855, (Mr. Valentine) that this Board was about to meet.

Mr. PARKER (acting Sergeant-at-Arms) having retired for a few minutes, came back and communicated with the Chairman.

Alfred VANDER then stated that the Clerk had written him that a quorum present he would come up.

Alfred CLANCY moved that the Sergeant-at-Arms notify several men that were in the building, that their presence was required.

Mr. PARKER (acting Sergeant-at-Arms) reported that there were three others. Supervisors follow below, but they were not present.

That was all that was necessary, as the Board stood adjourned for the evening.

Alfred CLANCY said he supposed there was nothing to be done out to adjourn to tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock.

The CHAIRMAN announced that a quorum was not present, they could not proceed with any business.

Alfred CLANCY moved that all of the conservative members of the Board, except three, were present, yet to perform their duty and he, for one, would never recognize the gentleman (Alderman Ely) who had been so recently nominated to the Chair.

The Board adjourned again, and the Chairman announced that there were three on his return to the building—Alderman Voorhis, Tinker and Cowin—but they returned to attend.

Board No. 2 then adjourned to meet again at 4 o'clock the day (Saturday).

Police Intelligence.

IN A GORAM—SERIOUS INCIDENT.—Yesterday morning a handsome-looking girl, named Elizabeth Gray, was brought before Justice Connelly, at the Lower Police Court, on a charge of grand larceny, in stealing, as it is alleged, $660 from a country man named Aaron Walk.

The complainant, who is a resident of Unison Point, alledged, that on the 20th of April he had met the accused at the Goram theatre. Complainant agreed to accompany the prisoner to her place of residence, No. 48 Elizabeth street, where she extracted his wallet from his breast pocket, and was about replacing it, when Mrs. Walk interceded, and it was being placed upon him, he immediately opened it, and found it contained $660, which he had been unable to account for.

The Depy't Clerk of the Common Council, sought to call the witness, and three appeared—The Reverend, Supervisor of Charity, Tracy, Steers, Monaghan, Horwitz, McKinley and Vandal. There was no枉 member present.

The CHAIRMAN remarked that it would be well to appoint a clerk in order that the roll might be called to ascertain if a quorum was present.

Widening Roads Street.

THE CHARGE OF CORRUPTION AGAINST THE COUNCILMEN COMMITTEE ON STREETS—EXAMINATION OF TWO PROPERTY OWNERS ON BEADS STREET—THE SOLICITATION OF $1,000—CORRESPONDENCE IN THE CASE.

The special committee of the Councilmen appointed to investigate into the charge of corruption preferred against the Committee on Streets of the Board, in the matter of the application for a loan of $1,000, to widen Beads street, held their first meeting yesterday, at 3 P. M.—Councilmen Van Tine, (chairman) Swan, Baxter, Martin and Gray present. There was quite a numerous attendance of Councilmen and others interested in the subject under consideration.

Mr. McCurdy was the first witness sworn, and testified as follows—I live at No. 10 East Fourteenth street, and am engaged in the dry goods business at No. 65 Barclay street; I am interested in the widening of Beads street, as I own property on both sides of the street; I never offered out to any party to effect the direction of the same, nor have I ever given any information to any of the members of the Board of Commissioners over called on me in regard to paying any money to effect the carrying through of this project; a person not a member of the Board, did call on me in reference to the matter, at my house, and said he was a member of the Board, and that he was a friend of mine; I asked him if he was a stranger to me; I have seen him since, and learned that his name was Nims, who is engaged in the City Library, when Mr. Nims called on me, he made the remark about the amount of $1,000, and I said, "I don't know"; he said that this amount was guaranteed to pass; he said that if this amount was not paid, a minority report would be presented against the widening of the street; I asked him who this amount would go to; he said he was not at liberty to tell me; he gave me a sum of $1,000, and I was a stranger to him; I asked him if he was a member of the Councilmen who received my amount; his reply was, "I know how these things are done, don't you?" I said to him if he mediated in this matter by any means, he said he did not; I asked him if he was a member of the Councilmen, he told me he was a member of the Board; I further said that there was no opposition to the measure, and that if the Councilmen did not report favorably, we should insist on knowing the reason; his reply was, "Do you know me, only if you can give me $1,000, let me know it"; I received a letter from Mr. Nims subsequent to this interview; it bore to him: "Dear Sir—

DEATH OF SHERIFF JONES OF KANSAS.—The post, Mr. Jones, the Sheriff of that state, is dead! He died at his office in Topeka, Kansas, on Saturday evening, and thus to crown the miseries which have befallen the State of Kansas, the Sheriff, who was a man of great worth, and a good man, was assassinated by a assassin, instigated by the traitors of Lawrence, is dead!

We learn that the abolitionists have assassinated an other slave-driver, named George, at Lawrence, and through the indignation of Beads and Franklin, and other leaders of the rebels of Kansas, no mix, woman or child—not one of them—is safe from the halls of Sharp's or the dangers of the midnight assassin. This state of things is indeed deplorable. Either law and order must be established, or the reign of terror is firmly fixed.

A MAN AND BOY BURNED TO DEATH IN PHILADELPHIA.—A shocking affair, which resulted in the death of two persons, took place yesterday evening. It began at a wharf, at the dock of the New York Central, where a man, and a boy, who were ashore on a spars and ransomed late at night very drunk. While going on board the man fell overboard and was near being drowned, but was fished out of the water and went into the cabin. The boy, who had been left on the deck, was also ashore on fire by his drunken carelessness; he returned to the deck, where he fell asleep. Some time after it was discovered that the cabin was on fire. The boy was burned to death, and the boy's mother, who was 10 years old, was severely scorched, and narrowly escaped being drowned. The shocking affair throughout is attributable to drunkenness. Coroner Delavan held an inquest on the remains. The name of the deceased was James Marshall; the captain's little son was named Wm. James Higgins.—Philadelphia Bulletin, May 7.
